On Tuesday, August 30, 2016, at approximately 11:07 a San Bruno Police Officer contacted the occupants of a vehicle parked near Oakmont Drive and Evergreen Drive in San Bruno. One of the occupants of the vehicle, later identified as twenty-six year old Oregon resident Dustin Patton, provided a name and personal information of another subject to identify himself to the officer. A subsequent investigation revealed that Patton was in possession of methamphetamine, a high capacity firearm magazine, narcotics paraphernalia, and burglary tools. One of Patton's companions, twenty-four year old Clearlake resident Morgan Williams was found to be in possession of methamphetamine and narcotics paraphernalia.

Several pieces of mail addressed to addresses in the City of San Francisco were located inside the vehicle. An investigation to determine whether or not these pieces of mail were stolen is ongoing.

Williams signed and was issued a Promise to Appear for the misdemeanor violations of possessing methamphetamine and narcotics paraphernalia. She was released shortly thereafter. Patton was booked into the San Mateo County Jail for charges relating to the possession of a large capacity firearm magazine, possession of methamphetamine, possession of narcotics paraphernalia, possession of burglary tools, and providing false information to a peace officer to make another liable.
